LONDON LOAN.

The annexed, in relation to the debt of Buenos Aires, is from the Committee of Spanish American Bondholders:

"The Committee have this day received the following communication from Mr. Giro, their special commissioner at Buenos Ayres:—

"Copy of a letter addressed by Mr. James Giro to the Minister of Finance of Buenos Ayres, Don Norberto de la Riestra:

"Buenos Aires, July 29, 1856.

"Excellent Sir,—The undersigned has the honour to submit to your Excellency, that, in compliance with Your Excellency's request, he transmitted to the Committee of Bondholders in London, the propositions made to him by Your Excellency on the part of the Government of Buenos Aires, under date the 8th of March last, whereby it is proposed to resume by specified degrees, the full payment of interest on the London loan, furnish a sinking fund, and settle the account now due for interest in arrears, by the emission of bonds under certain arrangements for their redemption, these bonds not to carry interest.

"The undersigned has the honour to acquaint Your Excellency, that the Committee have received with much satisfaction the offer now made by the Government of Buenos Ayres, for a general arrangement of these claims. The terms proposed would in every respect have met with their approval, had they included a reasonable allowance for interest on the bonds to be issued for the interest overdue, which they had always expected would be justly admitted in any arrangement proposed, and this they cannot therefore in justice to themselves relinquish. The Committee have on this point entirely coincided in the opinion and views expressed to Your Excellency by the undersigned in his letter of the 28th of March, in reply to the aforesaid propositions, and which propositions the Committee equally with him accept, and agree to with that exception.

"This decision of the Committee has been arrived at after serious and anxious consideration of Your Excellency's propositions, and of the question in all its bearings, and is further recorded as the unanimous opinion of the bondholders in general, and they therefore rely on the Buenos Ayres Government admitting the justice and reasonable nature of their final requirement, and thereby bring this negotiation to a satisfactory conclusion.

"The undersigned has the honour once more, in the discharge of his duty, to request the concurrence of Your Excellency's Government in this claim, and he hopes Your Excellency will honour him with an official reply to this effect, to enable the undersigned to report to the Committee the final adjustment of the whole question by the packet, if possible, which is to leave this port for England on the 2d of August proximo.

"The undersigned has unfeigned pleasure in renewing to Your Excellency the assurances of his high consideration and respect.

"JAMES GIRO."

"Ministry of Finance."

"Buenos Aires, Aug. 1, 1856.

"To the Commissioner of the Bondholders of the London Loan, Mr. James Giro:—

"The undersigned Ministry of Finance, has the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your note, dated the 23th of July last past, commencing the resolution adopted by the bondholders at a general meeting, relative to the propositions made to them, through you, under date the 8th of March last, for a final adjustment of the debt due on the London loan.

"Said note having been brought to the knowledge of my Government, and taken into deliberate consideration, I am charged by them to reply to it, manifesting to you, that they have seen with regret that their intense wishes and efforts to bring this affair as speedily as possible to a final arrangement equitable to all have not had the result which they confidently expected, as results from the refusal of the bases of the arrangement proposed, which is what the non-acceptance of them in their entirety amounts to. The bondholders being by their resolution released from the proposed arrangement, my Government remains naturally equally released from it: but in making to you this declaration I am likewise charged to manifest to you that you may make it known to your constituents that my Government find themselves always disposed to continue treating on the arrangement of this important matter, on the same principles of good faith and equity of which they are giving incontestible proofs.

"Having complied with the instructions of my Government, it only remains to me to reiterate to Mr. Giro the assurances of the most distinguished consideration.

"NORBERTO DE LA RUESTRA."

FRANCE.

The Monitor contains a list of 334 English non-commissioned officers and men who have received the French military medal for distinguished services in the Crimea. In the French army, the medal carries with it a pension of £4 per year; but it is not said whether or not the English are to receive the pension.

A few days ago twenty-one persons were tried at St. Etienne for having formed a secret society for the overthrow of the Government and the assassination of the Emperor. This week the tribunal of correctional police has been trying not fewer than forty six persons on a similar charge. Of these forty six, ten have just been acquitted, and the rest have been condemned to from four months' to four years' imprisonment. At a distance these secret political societies appear very formidable, but here, in France, they do not attract very much attention. Nevertheless, there is no question that they are dangerous, and that they prove that poor France is still menaced with insurrections and revolutions.

There is a talk of establishing in Paris, gigantic bakeries, for baking bread on a new system, by which, it is said, it is made better and cheaper.

As a specimen of the damage done by the late inundations, the Mayor of Chapelle-sur-Loire, a village of only 3,200 souls, has written to the papers to say, that the damage done therein to the houses and crops, was 1,916,294 (upwards of £76,000.)

Proceedings are about to be taken against the four Paris papers which published the letter addressed by the students of Paris to those of Turin.

The Government has forbidden the provincial newspapers to discuss the question of the unity of the two branches of the Bourbon family.

Marshal Pelissier is said to be very savage with the Government for not having made him Governor General of Algeria. His title, and his pension of 100,000 fr. (£4,000) a year, are, in his eyes, not sufficient to compensate for the loss of that dignity which has been the ambition of his life. The Government, however, was afraid to confer it on him on account of the independence of his character.

SPAIN.

The Madrid Gazette publishes a decree dismissing seven civil governors of the provinces, and gives the names of sixteen others.

The Municipal elections are postponed, as announced by the Gazette, until the electoral lists shall have been completed, but in reality because Rios Rosas is informed that the result of the elections in September would infallibly be the re-election of all the ayuntamientos which the Captain General lately dissolved. The journals of the progressive party exhort the electors to spare no pains to inscribe their own friends on the lists, so as to prove to Europe what is the opinion of the immense majority of the Spanish people.

The Madrid Gazette of the 23rd publishes the Royal decree suppressing the National Guard. The Ministry vindicates that measure in a long exposition addressed to the Queen.

The news from the provinces does not present much of interest. Arrests continue to be made in Catalonia. At Barcelona the price of bread still rises, in spite of the fall of prices in corn and flour, and there have been some tumults at the doors of the bakers. From Lerida it is announced that Madoz is about to publish a statement addressed to his constituents, in which he will narrate the events that preceded and have followed the counter revolution, from July to the present day.

PORTUGAL.

The screw steamer Braganza, Captain Lloyd, has arrived in the Mersey from Oporto with dates to the 22nd ultimo. There was no intelligence of any further outbreak at Lisbon, and the vigorous measures adopted by the young King on the late occasion appeared to have quite overthrown the rioters. Oporto was perfectly healthy, and there had been no appearance of the cholera there. The grapes were said to be entirely ruined, and the prospects of this season's vintage were of the most gloomy character. The only British steamer at Oporto when the Braganza left were the screw-steamer East Anglian, loading for London, and the transport steamer Jackal, put in leaky. The Douro, from Liverpool, was met about a day's sail from Oporto.

The cholera has now considerably diminished in Lisbon, and hopes are entertained that in a short time it will altogether disappear. The deaths are now only about 16 a day. The accounts from the Azores state that the harvest is short, in consequence of the dry weather which prevailed at the commencement of the season—an evil, however, which was much ameliorated by the rains which set in later. The Government has prohibited the exportation of provisions from Terceira, and has established quarantine as a precautionary measure against the invasion of cholera.

ITALY.

From Milan we have advices stating that placards were affixed to the mansions of the Greppi, Traverse, and Poldi, in this city, on which were conspicuous and legible the mottoes, "Long live King Victor Emmanuel!" and "Long live Cavour!" Next morning there was a great commotion amongst the police at the sight of these placards, and they ordered the owners of the respective houses to remove them at once. The latter declared, however, that as they had not affixed the placards on the walls of their houses, they did not think it was their business to take them down. The police was then obliged to perform the operation, which was done in a most imposing manner.

A letter from Turin, of the 22d ultimo, says:—Piedmont is arming and making warlike preparations, as if she were on the eve of a new collision. The fortifications of Alessandria and Casale are rapidly advancing. The troops are employed in constructing the works. Grand military manoeuvres are about taking place, and the Minister of war has ordered the Commanders of the military divisions and subdivisions to suspend the delivery of furlough, in order that as many men as possible may be present under arms from the 1st of September to the 15th of November, the period fixed for those manoeuvres. General Trotti has assumed the command of the fortress of Alessandria.

A Congress of the principal partisans of Prince Lucien Murat, who aspires to the throne of Naples, is about to be held in Savoy. This intrigue is expected to end in failure. France is not likely to favour the prince's claims.

SARDINIA.

"The ministerial party in Piedmont," says the Courier des Alpes, is employing all the means at its disposal to animate the national subscription for the 100 cannons. But the Mazzini party has commenced a dangerous rivalry; the Italia e Popolo of Genoa, an organ of Mazzini, opens another national subscription for the purchase of ten thousand muskets, destined to reward and to support the efforts of the first Italian province which rises against the common enemy.

Among the subscribers to the hundred guns for Alessandria is a gentleman and lady, named Bramante, ex Robbia, with their seventeen children—viz, eight boys and nine girls.

A letter from Rome announces the death of Prince Charles Doria, who every year was accustomed to distribute a sum of 40,000 fr. in alms. He was a veccone, and not content with what he gave himself, used to go, barefooted, dressed in a coarse sackcloth, with a thick cord round his waist, about the streets, imploring charity from the passers-by for the poor.

AFFRAY IN PRUSSIA.—There is much talk in military and civil circles at Berlin relative to an unpleasant affair which has just occurred between two officers of the 13th line regiment at Münster and a civilian of property, named Linde. According to the Eberfeld Gazette, some officers of the regiment attended the rifle shooting festival of Warendorf, where, during the day, M. Linde thought proper to make use of language highly offensive to the officers present. He bei g what is termed even-birthed, and consequently in a position to answer personally for the offence, was challenged by one of the officers, but declined to fight. The Commander of the landwehr battalion then interposed, and endeavoured to settle the matter amicably, by inducing M. Linde to apologise. This, however, he not only refused, but having met two officers of the regiment next day in the market-place, accosted them in most offensive terms. Thereupon, he having refused to fight, one of the officers drew his sword, with the intention of punishing the offender, who instantly closed with him, and endeavoured to wrest from him his sword. Thereupon the second officer sprung forward, and holding himself bound to assist his comrade, drew his sword and dealt Linde a severe slice across the chin. Burglers and military then interfered, and whilst Linde's wound was being dressed, the two officers were arrested by their Commander, and the affair is to go before a court of inquiry. According to the military code and civil law, in so far as both are connected, officers receiving gross verbal insult from civilians are justified in drawing their swords and using them at the moment; and in case civilians strike or close with officers, a comrade standing by is likewise justified in using his weapon. No officer having his sword can reproach, or blow, or even offensive touch with his hand, or in short by any other means than with his sword.

AUSTRIA is increasing her navy. Her first 90 gun screw line-of-battle ship has just been put on the stocks at Pola. Two other ships of the same rank are to be commenced immediately. Two first rate screw frigates and a screw corvette are nearly completed; and a screw despatch gun-boat will be ready for sea in August. Maritime arsenals are to be founded at Fiume and Lussin.

NAPLES.—A "great sensation" has been excited at Naples: a mutiny took place in the first Grenadier Guards, the third mutiny since January. Two men were unjustifiably ordered to be flogged by the commanding officer. When the punishment had been inflicted, a general was sent to inquire into the case. While talking with the Colonel, he expressed his surprise at the great stillness; when suddenly there was a rush of the soldiers into the yard, and cries were uttered of "Enter General!" "Long live the King!" "Away with the Colonel!" "Down with the canaglia (black-guard)!" The Colonel, it was said, was in considerable danger; he, however, is now under arrest, and the soldiers are confined to their barracks until the decision of the King shall be known. The incident has excited a painful and dangerous sensation throughout the army. The Governor of Narni, who had rendered himself "obnoxious by his oppressions," has been shot in the streets.

The Risorgimento of Turin, of the 30th ult., states that Mazzini had issued a circular to his Agents, declaring his intention of withdrawing entirely from politics, and leaving London for New York, or some other city of the United States. His Agent at Turin, Advocate Bettini, has been instructed to sell the property he possesses in Piedmont.

FREE TRADE IN BELGIUM.—Advices from Belgium confirm the recent statements regarding the progress of the free-trade opinions in that country. In a debate just terminated in the Chamber of Representatives, twenty-five members out of sixty eight, were in favour of the free admission of iron of all sorts, and a reduction of duty on pig-iron from 48s 6d. to 18s 7d per ton has actually been voted, by a large majority in both houses.

PRELIMINARY TREATY OF PEACE.—The trial of the news agent, Lejolviet, on a charge of complicity in purloining public documents and of bribing and corrupting a servant of the State, comes on before the Court of Assizes of Paris this month. He is charged with having induced one of the workmen of the Imperial printing office to purloin the copies of the Treaty of Peace and the Protocols, in order to communicate them to the newspapers the Independence Belge and the Nord. Two persons employed in his news office have been arrested, on the charge of aiding and abetting in the act.

UNITED STATES.

MR. HERBERT, the Representative for California in the American Congress, has been committed for trial for murdering a waiter.

THE CRIMEAS troops who have arrived in Canada have been received with unbounded enthusiasm by the inhabitants; another proof of the good feelings of our Colonies for the Mother-country, recently demonstrated in so many ways.

The inhabitants of Montreal have subscribed the magnificent sum of £1044 8s., for defraying the expenses incurred in the reception and entertainment of the 39th Regiment arrived from the Crimea. Preparations were also made to give an enthusiastic reception to the 17th Regiment, expected in Her Majesty's ship Vulcan.

A COURTEOUS ACT OF THE UNITED STATES.—The resolution offered by Mr. Mason, of Virginia, authorising an appropriation of 40,000 dollars, in order to purchase the British ship Resolute, abandoned in the Arctic Seas, and found in Baffin's bay by some American whalers, has unanimously passed the Senate, and been sent to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

THE HARVEST IN AMERICA.

The wheat crop of the country is now mostly secured and in excellent order. A greater breadth of land was sown with wheat last fall than ever before, and though the yield per acre will not equal that of last year's crop, the total yield will be much greater. The crop has been secured in the best possible condition

COMMUNICATED.

To the Editor of the British Packet.

It appears that some of the allusions in my communication published in your last number, have wounded the feelings of certain of our Captains. They assuredly were not intended to do so; for such cases as that of the Lady Mona, that took a Pilot who only knows his way in broad daylight, who cannot speak English, and who went for half the rate fixed in the tariff, are exceptional in the extreme; and consequently Captains in general can in no way be affected by such cases as that of the Lady Mona, and the Bremen brig Teutonia. It is merely the fact of taking a Montevidean Pilot, whilst there are here Pilots belonging to the State, and who have a hall at Point Indio, where they can be disembarked, that should be brought under the notice of ship-owners and Insurance Companies.

Be pleased therefore to publish these few lines as a satisfaction to those who fancied themselves aggrieved by the mention made in my former facts that cannot be denied, because they are both certain and notorious. No English Captain, and still less North American ones, can question our perfect right to expose such cases as those denounced through your Journal, when it is known that the lights maintained at Point Indio and in the Outer Roads, are wholly defrayed by our Society, and that our unincorporated Pilots, and also the Montevidean ones, take advantage of these lights, without any charge whatever. Such flagrant injustice would not be tolerated either in England or the United States; nor are foreign pilots there allowed to exercise their industry with the liberty accorded to them here.

Your obedient servant:

An Olá River Pilot.

BUENOS AYRES

We have much satisfaction in complying with the request of the British Ship-Masters, by giving insertion to the following document, which breathes the best spirit, and is equally honourable to all parties concerned.

Public Acknowledgment.

To the Editor of the British Packet.

Sir,

We beg leave through the medium of your Paper, to convey to Commandant Manzano, of the National schooner of war Santa Clara, our warmest acknowledgments, for the prompt and important services rendered to the British bark Golden Eagle.

This vessel was bound for the Uruguay in ballast, and got aground on the 14th instant, in the neighbourhood of Martin Garcia. Commandant Manzano, seeing her perilous situation, immediately went to her assistance, and spared no exertions, both of himself and crew, in first getting her off the bank, and afterwards in fishing the anchor, with 75 fathoms of cable, that but for his aid would probably have been lost; for the Golden Eagle had no boat on board large enough for that purpose.

Such arduous and disinterested services in the cause of humanity, deserve to be publicly acknowledged; and in the absence of Captain Cape, (who writes in the most glowing terms of the kindness, activity, and intelligence of his benefactor,) we the British Ship-Masters in the port of Buenos Ayres, respectfully tender our most cordial thanks to Commandant Manzano, for his noble conduct on this occasion; and that reflects so much honor on himself, and on the Government and Country in whose service he is employed.

As humanity and valour are twin brothers, we confidently predict, as we earnestly desire, the gallant Commandant Manzano a brilliant and successful career in the honourable profession he has embraced.

We are, Sir,

Yours respectfully,—

The British Ship-Masters.

[In the Port of Buenos Ayres.]

Buenos Aires, October 18th, 1856.

The weather.

Were we in the humour of writing a Jeremiad upon the weather, the last three days would afford an excellent theme. It has been something approaching a hurricane, and we fear there must be a rather long list of minor casualties among the vessels in port; but we are not yet in possession of reliable details.

Among the beach craft it has been a fatal week; six individuals of different nationalities are known to have perished, and the fate of two others is still doubtful. We have heard some names mentioned, but it would be improper to mention them till the facts are clearly ascertained. We have also heard of some hair-breadth escapes, in which we may trace the finger of a merciful Providence.

Southern Frontier.

General Escalada had arrived safe at the Azul, where he found all quiet in the meantime. In assuming the command in chief he addressed the following proclamation to the troops:—

The General-in-chief of the Army of the Southern Frontier—

CHIEFS, OFFICERS AND SOLDIERS!—The Government of the State has done me the honor to confide to me the command of the army entrusted with the defence of this important part of the Frontier. I am now amongst you, and I will discharge that high mission with all the zeal and perseverance that correspond to so important an object, without omitting any sacrifice whatever.

SOLDIERS!—You have borne with noble resignation, the trying fatigues of an arduous campaign, beset with great difficulties. A few more sacrifices will suffice to accomplish the object of these crude privations, re-establishing general security in this valuable part of the territory of the State; but it is necessary that morality, and thorough subordination and discipline be the solid basis of the reorganisation of the army; as its best guarantee, and the noblest claim it can present before the Government, for public respect and esteem, when peace has released you from the privations and fatigues of war.

COMPANIONS OF ARMS!—In your privations and dangers, ever reckon upon your General and friend

MANUEL ESCALADA.

Head Quarters at the Azul, October 16th 1856.

Rumoured invasion on the Western Frontier.

Several circumstances concur to give an air of probability to this ominous rumour. It appears that General Hornos has advanced with his force from Lujan towards the Bragado. Colonel Laureano Diaz, after a visit of some weeks in town, started for his destination rather abruptly. All this indicates some movement; and yesterday it was pretty generally reported, that a party of some eighty friendly Indians, in the pay of the Government, and under the immediate command of Valdo Benites, had revolted and escaped with some booty, before the arrival of General Hornos. We are not aware what amount of credit is due to these sinister rumours, but we fear they are not altogether unfounded.

Clover Hoax.

After all there is something in a name. On the arrival of the Camilla at Montevideo, it was gravely given out that Don Juan Manuel Rosas—was among the passengers on board!

The mere mention of that name produced a profound sensation, as may easily be conceived, in friends and foes; but hopes and fears alike vanished when it became known that it was only a grandson of the ex-dictator.

Strange Alliance.

If we are to credit the veracious correspondence of some of our local papers, Southampton has become a hot-bed of political intrigue, in which the prime actors are no less than the august personages—Lord Palmerston and General Ross.

What the direct object of this new combination may be, is not very clearly defined; but we presume it cannot be other than a restoration of the political equilibrium in the River Plate. In its present form, it is too ludicrous to merit a serious discussion; and fortunately Old Pam, after his experience of Punch and others, can afford to be the butt of a little innocent railery or harmless detraction.

Bahia Blanca.

A vessel has arrived bringing the widow and brothers of the late Colonel Olivieri. Nothing official has yet been published on the situation of the Colony, and the private reports are somewhat contradictory. We find no account of any Indian movements in that quarter.

Baloon ascent.

The ascent of M. Lartet announced for Sunday last, was postponed in consequence of the state of the weather, and is not likely to be attempted for some days to come.

MISCELLANEOUS.

ROYAL INSURANCE COMPANY.

From the report of the annual meeting of the Royal Insurance Company, which appears in another column, we observe that their revenue from fire premiums during the past year amounted to 130,000*l.*, placing them among the largest English fire offices. Their profits in this branch during the same period appear to have been sufficiently large, amounting to 42,849*l.*, which warranted a dividend of 5s. per share, equivalent to 12½ per cent. on the original capital, while a sum nearly equal to the amount of dividend was carried to the reserve fund, and written off against the amount expended in rebuilding their offices in London and Liverpool. This company, appears therefore, to have met with even more than its proverbial success during the past year. The prosperity of the life branch appears to have been equally remarkable. We commented last year upon the successful result of this company's life business, which enabled them to declare a life bonus rarely equalled in amount. The effect of the disclosure of the prosperous condition of the company appears to have been that the new business during the past year—654 life policies having been issued in the year, and new premiums received amounting to 8370*l.* A main element in the great prosperity of this company's life branch, appears to be that it is comparatively unweighed with those expenses which press so heavily upon many life offices, as the fire branch, from its magnitude, relieves it of the larger proportion of the general expenses of the company.

[Morning Herald]

THE ITALIAN QUESTION.—The Opinion, of Turin, says:—We learn from Paris that Mr. Hubner, has really presented a note to the French Government, reflecting severely on Piedmont. But contrary to the assertions of the Belgian press, these reflections have not been received with favour; the latest French notes addressed to the Government of Turin are conceived in the most friendly language, and by no means bear out the insinuations of certain journals favourable to Austria. The Risorgimento, of Turin, says:—"Italy is agitating from Etina to Ticino all is in a state of rebellion."

THE "ANGEL GABRIEL" SENT TO PUGATORY.—The riots in Demarara have concluded. The jury found John Sayers Orr, (sometimes called the Angel Gabriel) guilty of creating an unlawful assembly, and the prisoner was sentenced to be imprisoned for three years with hard labour; at the expiration of that term, to find sureties, himself in £300 and two sureties of £150 each, for his good behaviour for three years longer. Four Portuguese were indicted for conspiring to beat Orr. It appeared that Orr had been in the habit of using the most disgraceful language towards the nuns in the convent, and had publicly insulted Dr. Hynes, the Roman Catholic Bishop. The parties indicted saved themselves with sticks, and lay in wait for Orr, who however managed to evade them. Three of them were convicted, and sentenced to six months' imprisonment and to pay a fine of 250 dollars each.

RETRIBUTION.—A Dutch journal contains the following singular account of the escape of a woman of Zevenhuizen from being poisoned by her husband, and the prompt chastisement of the latter. A man whose name is not given avoided himself of the opportunity of his wife's quitting the dining table for some domestic purpose, and rapidly mixed poison in the plate of soup, which she had commenced eating. At the moment the wife returned and re-seated herself the husband rose and quitted the apartment, under the pretext of having forgotten something necessary. The wife upon this was about to recommence eating, but on so doing she discovered a spider on her plate, and having great repugnance to these insects, she changed her plate for that of her husband, who returned immediately after, sat himself down, and seeing that his wife had nearly finished her portion, ate from the plate before him. In the course of a few hours he began to feel the effects of the poison, and although medical aid was instantly called in, died, confessing that he was justly punished for his own intended crime.

A STRIKING SMILE—THE HEALING WATERS!

Our readers will doubtless remember the magic properties assigned the river Lethe in the Mythology of ancient Greece. In those darker ages superstition held predominant sway, and usurped the minds of men. Immersion in its waters was believed to cause forgetfulness of past and present woes—the afflicted mind and diseased body could alike throw off the trammels that bound them, and being thus no longer the slaves of mental or bodily enthrallment, finished the rest of their days with indifference to the past, and unalloyed anticipation for the future.

But start not attentive reader! when we tell you with less faith, but far sterner fact, that we have a Lethe near our homes and hearths, whose waters not occasionally, but at all times, flow in one continuous stream of healing beneficence!

Whether the affliction emanate from the deep-seated core of long neglected disease, or from the ravages of malignant epidemic, or again from long protracted habits of dissipation and vice, there is at hand, within the easy grasp of the poor sufferer, be he high or low, a remedy for his woes to which he can look for succour, as he did the benighted "Israelites" upon the "Brazen Serpent" in the dreary Wilderness!

We allude, in the above remarks, to the vastly spread and mighty influence of the remedies which bear the name of the world famed and renowned Professor Holloway.

Countless thousands of every tongue and clime, daily hymn his praises, as having lifted them from a bed of suffering and sorrow to new life and reanimated vigor!

Be the malady hidden in the inmost vitals of the human frame, or evinced by superficial sores, by sores, but in the means, he eradicates the secret evil, and disperses to the winds the chronic venom that has for years defiled the Physician's skill!

These are not idle words we utter, visionary imaginings of a fevered brain, but the stern realities of long tried practice and unflinching issues.

The suffrages of universal acclamation stamp Holloway as the man, and his medicines as the means that administer to the "healing of the nations," from the "Orient" to the "Occidental" Sun!

The printer heralds it from pole to pole, and leaves to all and each but a "trial's test" to wring from the unwilling lips of the sceptic and doubter the universally allowed confession that "these things are so."—"Philadelpia Sun."

THE SMUGGLED SCOTSMAN.—A nobleman at Paris, some time ago, asked Lady Reay, why it was in general remarked by foreigners that the Scots who travelled were men of parts and learning, while the English were generally wanting in both! Her ladyship, with her usual candour, replied—"that only fools went out of England; but for Scotland, none but fools would stay in it." A Scots nobleman, famous neither for parts nor learning, Lord Babby, observed her ladyship was quite correct in regard to the Scot; for, says he, there are offices established in Scotland, where every Scotsman must apply for a passport, ere he can leave the country, and previous to the granting thereof, he is examined as to his intellect and education—which, should they not reach the proper standard, no passport is granted, but he is sent back for improvement; on a second application the same form is observed; but should he apply a third time, and be then found wanting, he is remanded for life. By this, says his lordship, your ladyship will plainly see none but men of sense and learning can legally leave the country. "Then," replied her ladyship, "I am sure your lordship was smugled!"

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS.—A certain cure for Scrofula or King's Evil.—Persons afflicted with this awful disease, should have immediate recourse to these invaluable medicines, as it is a well known fact that many patients have been effectually cured by their use after every other remedy had failed, and several have been restored to perfect health after being discharged from the hospitals, and there pronounced incurable. Holloway's Ointment and Pills are efficacious in every variety of diseases of the skin, scald heads, bad breasts, and obstinate sores; and there is no case, however desperate but will yield to the united powers of these sovereign medicines.

HERE IS YOUR REMEDY.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT

A MOST MIRACULOUS CURE OF BAD LEGS, AFTER 43 YEARS' SUFFERING.

Extract of a letter from Mr. William Galpin, of 70, St. Mary's Street, Weymouth, dated May 15th, 1851.

To Professor Holloway:
 Sir,—At the age of 18, my wife (who is now 61) caught a violent cold, which settled in her legs, and ever since that time they have been more or less sore, and greatly inflamed. Her agonies were distracting, and for months together she was deprived entirely of rest and sleep. Every remedy that medical men advised was tried, but without effect; her health suffered severely, and the state of her legs was terrible. I had often read your advertisements, and advised her to try your Pills and Ointment; and, as a last resource, after every other remedy had proved useless, she consented to do so. She commenced six weeks ago, and, strange to relate, is now in good health. Her legs are painless, without seam or scar, and her sleep sound and undisturbed. Could you have witnessed the sufferings of my wife during the last 43 years, and contrast them with her present enjoyment of health, you would indeed feel delighted in having been the means of so greatly alleviating the sufferings of a fellow-creature.
 (Signed) WILLIAM GALPIN.

A PERSON 70 YEARS OF AGE CURED OF A BAD LEG OF 30 YEARS' STANDING.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. William Abbs, Builder of Gas Ovens, of Ruschcliffe, near Huddersfield, dated May 31st, 1851.

To Professor Holloway:
 Sir,—I suffered for a period of 30 years from a bad leg, the result of two or three different accidents, at Gas Works; accompanied by scorbatic symptoms. I had recourse to a variety of medical advice, without deriving any benefit, and was even told that the leg must be amputated, yet, in opposition to that opinion, your Pills and Ointment have effected a complete cure in so short a time, that few who had not witnessed it would credit the fact.
 (Signed) WILLIAM ABBS.

The truth of this statement can be verified by Mr. W. P. England, Chemist, 13, Market Street, Huddersfield.

A DREADFUL BAD BREAST CURED IN ONE MONTH.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. Frederick Turner, of Penzance, Kent, dated December 13th, 1850.

To Professor Holloway:
 Dear Sir,—My wife had suffered from bad Breasts for more than six months, and during the whole period had the best medical attendance, but all to no use. Having before healed an awful wound in my own leg by your unrivalled medicine, I determined again to use your Pills and Ointment, and therefore gave them a trial in her case, and fortunate it was I did so, for in less than a month a perfect cure was effected, and the benefit that various other branches of my family have derived from their use is really astonishing. I now strongly recommend them to all my friends.
 (Signed) FREDERICK TURNER.
